Hi Brennen,

As if Covid-19 was not hard enough on all of us and our businesses, the world decided to throw even more at us all! Delays in shipping, obtaining raw materials, raw goods price increases and transportation cost increases unprecedented in our time, and little ways for any of us to control or influence this NEW-pandemic after shock.

International Fireproof Technology, Inc has done everything we can to absorb these cost increases and maintain our industry leading customer service and supply chain however we have come to the point of having to adjust pricing.

We appreciate you support, understanding, and assure you we remain ready to support you and your business with our industry leading DC315/DC360 products, customer service and technical support.

Effective Immediately pricing for all new orders we receive a 7% increase.

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions.
